Traffic jam study at City Centre begins

Students along with teachers are seen conducting traffic survey in city this morning.

Mysuru, Mar.5 (LNY&BCT)- A Comprehensive Study on Traffic Congestion in Mysuru City Centre, initiated by the Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP), began in city this morning.

The study is being anchored by MGP Member R. Chandra Prakash and it will recommend solutions to de-congest the traffic in the Central Business District (CBD) that is already facing heavy traffic.

The study is being conducted with the cooperation of the District Administration, Police and Government agencies like KSRTC, MUDA, RTO and others.

As part of the study, volunteers from V-LEAD, St. Philomena's Post-Graduate Institute and Traffic Wardens have begun traffic surveys.

Today's survey began at 7.30 am and ended at 11 am. In the evening too, the survey will be conducted from 5.30 pm to 7 pm. On Mar.7, again the survey will be conducted from 7.30 am till 7 pm. The Peak Hour Traffic survey will cover places including Railway Station, Sub-urban Bus Stand, K.R. Circle, Visvesvaraya Circle, K.R. Hospital, Devaraja Market, Ramaswamy Circle, Nehru Circle, Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa Circle, B. Rachaiah Circle and surrounding areas.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Sandhyarani, a teacher from St. Philomena's Post-Graduate Institute, who is leading a team of over 35 students from the Department of Master of Social Work (MSW) said, "Counting is done by each student and everyone is filling in the forms. Later, the data will be compiled and handed over to the MGP."

Headless woman's body puzzles Police

Woman's body found at Kalasthawadi on Mar. 1; identity not established

Mysuru, Mar.5 (RK&BCT)- A headless body of a woman whose torso was cut into two pieces with one hand missing is proving to be a headache for the City Police. The woman's identity has not yet been established despite efforts by the Police and the body is lying at the JSS Medical College Mortuary.

Police said that this was the first such case in the city where a woman's body is chopped into pieces and dumped in a water body with head and hand missing. Now the Police have decided to cremate the body this evening.

The body was found on Mar.1 at a pond behind a bridge near Kalasthawadi village on Mysuru-Bengaluru Road. Farmers, on their way to their fields, found the body and informed the Police Control Room, which in-turn alerted the jurisdictional Metagalli Police.

The age of the woman is around 35 to 40 years and the Police suspect that she would have been raped and murdered.

Despite several searches in the vicinity, the Police did not find the woman's head and the hand. Killers might have cut the head to hide the identity, said the Police. They also suspected that the woman might have been murdered on Feb.28 or on the morning of Mar.1.

Metagalli Inspector Sunil Kumar and Narasimharaja Assistant Commissioner of Police Umesh G. Shet told Star of Mysore this morning that they have passed on the information across the State and have not got any leads so far.

CDR analysis and investigation have not yielded any results and the Police have not been able to establish the identity. "Finger prints and foot prints have been collected and we found a match in Kanakapura. But the age does not match. There is no missing persons complaint filed that matches the woman's age. We have alerted our counterparts across the State and no one has claimed the body so far," they said.

"We have collected vital samples from the body so that it will help future investigation and we will cremate the body this evening as it is already four days and we cannot keep it anymore," the Police added.

Rahul Gandhi to address rally in city on Mar.25

Mysuru, Mar.5 (MTY&DM)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has said that AICC President Rahul Gandhi will address a public rally in city on Mar. 25.

Speaking to press persons at Mysore Airport this morning, Siddharamaiah said that Rahul Gandhi will tour districts of Mysuru region on Mar.20, 21 and Mar.24. He will end his tour by addressing a public rally in city on Mar.25.

Replying to a question regarding the demand for a Rajya Sabha (RS) seat by the JD(S), Siddharamaiah said that the JD(S) had not yet approached the Congress for the RS polls which is scheduled to take place on Mar. 23.

The Chief Minister said that he will be flying to New Delhi tomorrow to discuss party nominees' list.

When asked whether the poll results of North-Eastern States would have an impact on Karnataka elections, Siddharamaiah expressed confidence that the Congress would retain power and added saying, the proof was in the huge response his rallies have received.

Replying to a query whether Congress would opt for a tie-up with secular parties, the CM asserted that the Congress can win on its own.

After announcing the entry of Independent MLA and Nandi Infrastructure Corridor Enterprises (NICE) Chairman Ashok Kheny into Congress, the CM claimed that his party was hopeful of bagging 25 Assembly seats in Bengaluru alone.

Graft-Garbage gets going

Economists have defined money as a medium of exchange in daily life and have also described it in many words. The maxim "Money is what money does," described with utmost brevity, is attributed to Prof. Francis Amasa Walker (1840-1897), American economist, statistician, journalist, educator, academic administrator and military officer. The idiom 'money makes the mare go', featured as an English nursery rhyme dating back to the beginning of 17th century, conveys more eloquently the power that money wields, particularly in our times and in our land. Every other column of dailies of all hues, if not every column reporting happenings in society mirrors the hand of money, directly or indirectly. The heavy weights in the country's political parties have lately taken to hurl accusations, read charges of siphoning off money from public funds to various private holdings, more so avoiding glare of the citizens. Their kitty, boasting of amounts in rupees of astronomical proportions, is euphemistically called parallel economy.

Both the sides in the game of levelling charges of graft have found an escape route of denial of grounds of missing records and concrete evidences to their offending acts, leaving the public speechless and helpless for now. The charges on the backs of the multitude of elected representatives are reportedly being probed by authorised agencies of the government, reminding one of the fable of "who will bell the cat?"

The opposition in the State Legislative Assembly has averred that the treasury has been emptied of all cash even as the media reports are flashing events of laying foundation stones left, right and centre for a multitude of projects giving the impression to the public that all is well in the State's finances. The employees of the State Government, numbering more than five lakh have also been made to feel happy by announcing a 30 per cent hike in their wages with retrospective effect. Amounts of money grabbed by fraudsters have reached figures beyond the comprehension of lay people experiencing shivers about the fate of their deposits in public sector banks.

One is prompted to feel that the maxim as well as the idiom mentioned at the beginning of this column is gross understatements describing money. In short, what money is doing is much more than what it has done in the past; money may make the mare fall dead, getting paralysed by the figures. In the current scenario, it is only garbage all over the land, including Mysuru that is keeping august company with money earned unethically.

Hearing loss has an enormous impact on the social, economic, and productive life of an individual. Does the mere presence of an ear in a newborn mean that ifs functioning normally and can be taken for granted? We have heard the tales of mythological character Abhimanyu learning the secrets of warfare while in his mother's womb. The latest scientific evidence has shown that babies do listen and learn language skills right from their time in the womb. A new study by researchers at Pacific Lutheran University in the US has shown that newborns can pick up distinctive sounds of their mother tongue even in the womb.

Face-recognition gadget for cat!

Amsterdam: To make sure his cat doesn't have to wait too long at the door waiting to be let in, a Dutch engineer built a face-recognition gadget that identifies the feline and messages him so he can let it in.

It all started a few years ago, when Arkaitz Garro, a WeTransfer software engineer and his wife spotted a cat in their back balcony. They didn't know if it had been abandoned or simply a stray, so they took it in, but also posted some pictures of it around their neighbourhood, in case someone was looking for it. The problem was that neither Garro nor his wife could simply stand by the door waiting for the feline to show up. Arkaitz came up with a device made up of a Raspberry Pi mini-computer complete with a camera that would use motion-detection and image-recognition AI software to automatically identify the cat and then message him so he could let the animal in. "It took me a few hours to make a software, but also took some more time to tune the software to be able to recognise the cat," Arkaitz said.

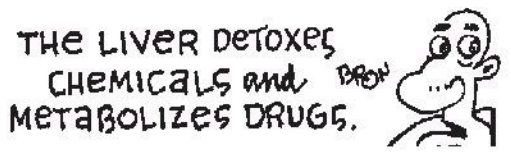
What purpose does my liver serve?



Your liver does a lot more than you might imagine. It makes cholesterol, identifies nutrients that your body needs and stores some away from future use. It filters 1.53 quarts (1.43 litres) of blood every minute and produces a quart of bile every day to help digest your food. And that's just the short list.

R.K. Ashrama
a blessing for our city

Sir,

Our City Ramakrishna Ashrama, just celebrated its annual celebrations last week, conducting a series of lectures in all the professional colleges and University of Mysore. Well known, senior monks of the order from Belur Math, Hyderabad, Tirupati rendered talks of interest to the students.

In the ashram, a number of musical concerts were organised every evening. The culmination event was very invigorating to us, spiritual seekers, where discourses by the monks mentioned above, was the highlight.

Under the guidance of the, Adhyaksha of the ashram, Swami Atmajnanandaji and all the monks, brothers and volunteers, the programmes were well attended and organised.

We, Mysoreans, are lucky to have such a strong spiritual presence spreading its fragrance in the heart of the city. A nice place to spend a few hours, a walk around the well planned garden, browse through the innumerable books at the book stall and library, have a chat with the monks, listen to the discourses at the auditorium, or just sit down and relax in the prayer hall, all of it, in spite of the ashram being on the busy KRS Road.

As Swami Vivekananda rightly said, 'such peacefulness, such contentment, such love, such power of silent and incessant work, and such manifestation of lion's strength in times of action — where else you will find these!'

Provide commercial stoppage to three more Express trains at Kengeri

Sir,

We understand that doubling of tracks between Bengaluru and Mysuru has been completed along with electrification of Chennai-Bengaluru-Mysuru corridor. We are also happy to note the introduction of new Humsafar Express and extension of Anubhuti service till May for Shatabdi.

As doubling of the tracks and electrification is now successfully completed, the Railway authorities are now requested to consider providing commercial stoppage to three more Express trains which do not presently halt at Kengeri Railway Station —, that is Mysuru - Ajmer Express, Mysuru - Jaipur Express and Mysuru - Howrah Express (bound to Bengaluru originating from Mysuru). Such a positive step will help ensure better connectivity between the cities and beyond from Kengeri itself.

Further this move will also ease burden on present Bengaluru Railway Station and will help people to connect to residential areas near Kengeri Station.

It should also be noted that certain long-distance trains originating from Mysuru like Mysuru - Sai Nagar Shirdi Express, Mysuru -Varanasi Express and Mysuru -Darbhanga Bagmati Express also have a facility of commercial stoppage at Kengeri.

Hence the authorities concerned are requested to consider this suggestion of providing a brief commercial stoppage at Kengeri Railway Station for three more trains.

Bengaluru pub assault case

After 15 days in hospital, Vidvat discharged

Bengaluru, Mar. 5 - Twenty-four-year-old Vidvat Loganathan, who was undergoing treatment at the Mallya Hospital, after he was mercilessly beaten up by Mohammed Nalapad Haris, son of Shanthinagar Congress MLA N.A. Haris, and his henchmen was discharged from the hospital last night.

He was admitted to the hospital on the night of Feb. 17 immediately after the attack. The doctors had written the discharge summary on Mar. 3 that he has completely recovered and was fit to be discharged.

Meanwhile, the Central Crime Branch (CCB) officials probing the assault case recorded the statement of Vidvath's brother Satvik. After the assault at the café, Nalapad and his henchmen had threatened Vidvat at Mallya Hospital. Vidvat's friend Praveen had taken him to hospital and Satvik Loganathan later joined him.

Vidvat

"Satvik's statement was recorded on Saturday evening after Vidvat's statement was recorded. He said that Vidvat's friends contacted him over phone and informed him about the assault. He directly came to Mallya Hospital, where Mohammed Nalapad Haris and his gang assaulted him and tore his clothes. They also threatened him with dire consequences if the incident was reported to the Police," an official said, adding that the investigating team was contemplating on considering Satvik as a witness in the case.

Mallya Hospital had reportedly cleared Vidvat for discharge on Feb. 28 itself, but the victim's family was not ready to take him home as they were not convinced that he had fully recovered. There was much debate over the extent of Vidvat's injuries, which were laid to rest by the Sessions Court hearing Mohammed's bail plea.

Judge Parameshwara Prasanna had observed that shifting of victim Vidvat from the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) of Mallya Hospital to the ward did not lower the gravity of Vidvat's condition or the case.

ACCUSED TO MOVE HC TODAY

As the Session's Court has rejected bail to Mohammed Nalapad Haris, his advocates are likely to move the Karnataka High Court on Monday (today), questioning the judgment of the Lower Court and requesting the High Court to grant bail to him and the co-accused.

Former Minister accuses government of misusing employees fund

Mysuru, Mar.5- Former Minister and BJP leader S.A. Ramdas has accused the State Government of misusing employees welfare fund to print calendars with Congress symbol, meant for distribution among employees.

Addressing a press meet here yesterday Ramdas alleged that the Congress Government was using employees fund to get publicity.

Claiming that 20 lakh calendars were printed at a cost of Rs. 6 crore and distributed among industrial workers and others through the Labour Department, Ramdas maintained that the calendars had slogans of 'Nava Karnataka Nirmana' campaign of the Congress.

Asserting that the calendars were released on Workers Safety Day on Mar.1, Ramdas urged the Election Commission to remove the Congress symbol and slogan on the calendars.

Former Minister S.A. Ramdas displaying the calendar brought out by the Labour Department at a press conference organised in a private hotel here yesterday.

'It is nothing but naming the BJP's baby', he added.

K.R. Constituency BJP President Manjunath said the new Police Commissioner's office was built in the place reserved for park.

He urged the Chief Minister to postpone its inauguration till the High Court pronounce its final verdict on the row. BJP leaders Jogi Manju and Vadivelu were present at the press meet.

I am not so big to speak about 'knowledgeable people': Vasu

Mysuru, Mar.5(SPN&DM)- Making an indirect reference to former University of Mysore (UoM) and KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. K.S. Rangappa, who is also the JD(S) candidate from Chamaraja Constituency, MLA Vasu has said that he was not so big to talk about 'knowledgeable people.'

Speaking to press persons at Jaladarshini Guest House here yesterday, Vasu maintained that he had done his best as an MLA for the past five years.

Stating that he had no black spot as MLA from Chamaraja constituency, Vasu said he grew up politically from the grassroot level.

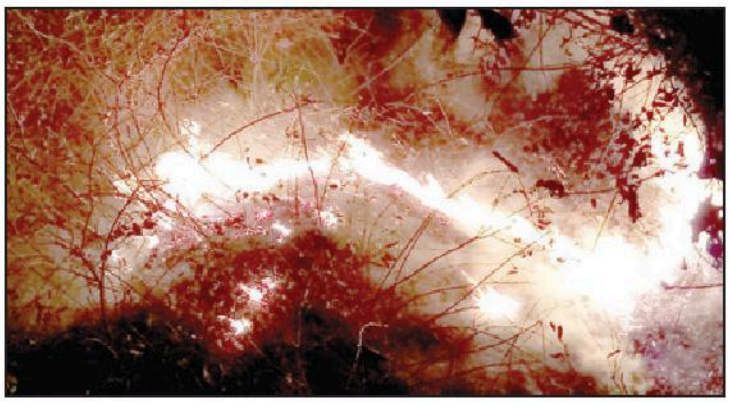
Stating that he lost two times to H.S. Shankaralingegowda, Vasu said that he did not speak ill of the victor or the defeated whenever he won or lost elections.

Claiming that 4.5 lakh students were affected by KSOU row, Vasu in an indirect reference to Prof. Rangappa, said that only the 'Knowledgeable people' should react on the plight of the KSOU students.

Pointing out that MP and former CM Dr. M. Veerappa Moily during a recent press meet had blamed a former VC while not mentioning his name for the KSOU row, Vasu wondered why Prof. Rangappa should react to Moily's remark when he (Moily) had not named anyone.

Listing his achievements as an MLA, Vasu said it was left to the people to compare his work with that of the previous MLAs elected from the constituency.

Fire at Maldare, Dubare destroys over 100 acres of forest land



Siddapura (Kodagu), Mar.5 (US)- The raging fire in Dubare Forest Range has spread to Maldare Forest area covering Avaregundha, Basavanahalli, Asthana, Doddahadlu, Gaddige Betta and has reportedly gutted over 100 acres of forest land.

Forest Department staff were relentlessly trying to douse the fire raging for the last six days, but the spreading of fire to neighbouring zones could not be arrested owing to the intensity of the blaze resulting in invaluable forest wealth being destroyed.

Forest staff, tribals and local residents of Maldare have been trying their best to avoid the fire spreading to Thithimathi Forest.

Fire Brigade personnel are taking extra precaution to ensure that the fire does not spread to coffee plantations located by the roadside.

They are sprinkling water continuously at the periphery of the forest to contain the blaze.

Life is worth only if it is lived for others

By Sujata Rajpal

Hemchand Jain, an 83-year-old businessman in Mysuru, believes in living life by the above principle. In 1953, he migrated to Mysuru from Kalandi, a small village in Rajasthan. Inspired by the teachings at his village school, the seeds of service were already sprouting in the young heart when he made Mysuru his home to take over the family business but there wasn't any opportunity to do much.

About two decades later, the big opportunity came unannounced in a small way when one day while sitting at his friend's clinic, a leprosy patient walked in for consultation. His friend Dr. Raj Kumar Singh casually mentioned to his friend-cum-patient that he would love to serve leprosy patients if there was someone who could provide free medicines. Little did the Physician know that his wish would be granted instantly?

Hemchand Jain, a 40-year-old then, readily agreed to construct a dispensary and provide free medicines to leprosy patients. The duo worked together for sixteen years and the dispensary continued to function even after the demise of Dr. Singh. After being cured of the 'curse,' the leprosy patients were also helped to find employment and other means of livelihood. 'The dispensary functioned for 35 years but when there were no more leprosy patients in the city, the clinic was closed,' says the philanthropist while a smile of contentment plays on his lips.

I first heard the name of this philanthropist when I had visited Asha Kirana Hospital for an interview.

Many years ago when Asha Kirana was still a dream project and Dr. S.N. Mothi was looking for a place for giving consultation to HIV positive patients, Hemchand Jain volunteered to give the entire floor of Mahaveer Jain Hospital to Dr. Mothi and his team.

Octogenarian Philanthropist Hemchand Jain.

'I just asked for one single room and we got the entire floor. We used the premises for seven years and not a single paisa was charged from us as rent,' says Dr. Mothi.

And when it was time to construct the building of a 30-bed AIDS Hospital at Hebbal Industrial Area, this octogenarian contributed a large sum as one of the Trustees of Asha Kirana Charitable Trust.

Such magnanimity is indeed rare in today's materialistic world when even while doing a charity we are chiefly concerned about how it benefits us. 'What's in it for ME?' is our first thought. And here is an individual who expects nothing in return for the lakhs spent by him. May his tribe increase!

'Why AIDS and Leprosy?' I want to know. He adjusts his hearing aid before answering. 'Even today there is a lot of stigma attached to these two diseases so there are not many people who work for leprosy and AIDS. There are still myths that leprosy is contagious and one can get AIDS just by shaking hands. Our society doesn't need only the financial assistance but we should also create awareness about these diseases.'

It is refreshing to see such wisdom and progressive thinking in a person who has studied only till intermediate.

Hemchand Jain, who owns Aslaji Hemchand Jain & Sons, a metal ware shop and Arunoday Appliances, a home appliances store on Ashoka Road, has also helped start two high schools in the city.

'We generated funds from family and friends to set up two schools as education is the best gift one can give to anyone,' he mentions modestly with an unmistakable emphasis on 'We.' Mahaveer Vidya Mandir at Srirampura and Shree Mahaveer Jain Vidyalaya at Siddarthanagar are affiliated to State Board and ICSE respectively. 'These schools don't impart religious education. They are regular schools so don't go by the name,' he clarifies.

> "Life is fleeting, and permanence in this world is something we all strive for. Philanthropy is the best way to achieve permanence.
> —Ram Shriram, a businessman from the US"

When I ask him where else he has helped financially, he again smiles. 'Nothing much...,' he says. His elder daughter-in-law Padma Vasanth Jain at whose house we were chatting, steps in to complete the sentences of the patriarch of the family. 'He is passionate about education and health. He has supported many students. On the death anniversary of my mother-in-law Kamala Devi Jain, he conducts health camps for poor people. Look, he has received so many awards,' she says pointing towards an array of plaques in the showcase.

Hemchand Jain is the recipient of Life-Time Achievement Award by Asha Kirana Hospital and Sumathi Nath Mandir. He was also bestowed with Dharmakarya Ratan by Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashrama and Digambar Samaj Jain Milan.

The octogenarian has two sons — Vasanth Jain (married to Padma Vasanth Jain) and Suresh Kumar Jain (married to Beena Suresh Jain). Both the sons and their respective families are carrying on his legacy by supporting the causes of education and health.

After the interview, as I switch on the music player in my car, an old Hindi song plays resonating with the mood, Apne liye jiye to kya jiye, Tu ji, ai dil, zamane ke liye (what is life if you live only for yourself, live for others).

The 110-bed Jayadeva Hospital was started in K.R. Hospital premises in 2010. So far 4.5 lakh patients have been treated out of which 40,000 have been treated as outpatients. Further, 16,500 patients have undergone Angiogram, 7,600 Angioplasty, 1.75 lakh echo cardiogram treatment, ECG has been done on 2.76 lakh patients, 350 have undergone balloon valvuloplasty and 450 patients have pacemaker implants. Search Panel divided on naming Mysore Varsity VC

Mysuru, Mar.5 (NNN)- The Search Committee headed by former VTU Vice-Chancellor Prof. H.P. Kincha to select the 25th VC for University of Mysore (UoM), which met on Mar.3 in Bengaluru, seems to be divided in its opinion of finding three names to recommend to the Governor for finalising the name.

According to sources, one of the members said that the three names — Prof. N.S. Ashok Kumar of Mass Communication and Journalism, Bangalore University, Prof. R.K. Somashekar of Department of Environmental Science, Bangalore University and Prof. C.P. Siddashrama from the Kuvempu Institute of Kannada Studies — which had been short-listed have been sent to the Government.

However, another member said that if the Government wants a fresh list, then they would recommend calling for notification and fresh applications and the Search Committee would meet within a month and finalise three names to be sent to the Governor and a letter in this regard has been sent to the Chief Minister's office.

It may be recalled that Governor Vajubhai Rudabhai Vala had sent back the names recommended by the State Government for University of Mysore and Bangalore University asking them to send fresh names some time back.

Chandra Prakash told SOM that traffic congestion is rapidly increasing in the CBD and if urgent steps are not taken, the city will have traffic gridlocks everywhere very soon. "I have got preliminary data of traffic density in CBD from government agencies and Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep has assured me that he would release funds for the same," he said.

The main aim of the survey is to conduct an in-depth study of the various aspects of traffic congestion in this area. He said that previous studies were either out-of-date or not available to the public. "The study will include measures to be taken to control the flow of traffic. A mere study without solutions does not mean anything. We will suggest short-term, mid-term and long-term measures to minimise or ease traffic congestion," Chandra Prakash added.

Contract nurses oppose cut in stipend

Mysuru, Mar. 5 (RKB&DM) - Contract Nurses serving in K.R, Cheluvamba, PKTB and ED Hospitals, have strongly opposed the abrupt reduction in their stipend.

Addressing a press conference here yesterday, the contract Nurses claimed that their stipend had been reduced by half, which has severely disappointed them. Pointing out that they felt happy when their stipend was hiked to Rs. 17,500 a year ago, they said that the Government, all of a sudden, brought down the stipend to just Rs. 8,000, which has shocked them.

Claiming that the huge reduction was a big blow to their livelihood, they said that what the Government was paying them was not enough to lead a decent living.

Alleging that the authorities had refused them to stage protest and even threatened them if they went ahead with a strike, the Contract Nurses urged for the intervention of CM Siddharamaiah, District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, Medical Education Minister and other authorities to render them justice.

WORD OF THE DAY

Caravansary

Pronunciation: Kair-uh-VAN-suh-ree (noun)
Meaning: An inn surrounding a court in eastern countries where caravans rest at night.
Origin: In the Middle East of centuries past, caravans often lodged at caravansaries. These inns were quadrangular in form and enclosed by massive walls with small windows near the top. The central court, which was surrounded by an arcade and storerooms, was large enough to hold 300 to 400 camels. The name was formed from the word caravan and the Persian word sarāī, meaning "palace" or "inn." Caravansary can also be spelled caravanserai, and the word serai is used as a synonym for it.
Example: Most of the area's hotels are on the pricey end of the scale, but there are a few caravansaries for budget travellers.

THE ODD WORD

Gainsay

To declare to b untrue or invalid.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Failing to plan is planning to fail

Meaning: Literal meaning.
Origin: This modern-day proverb is widely attributed to Alan Lakein, the writer of several self-help books on time management from the 1970s onward. The quotation is certainly in the gung-ho, up and at 'em style of Lakein's and he may well have coined it. I can't find the source of the quotation in his published work, so 'attributed to' is the best I can do for now. If Lakein did coin the expression, he must have done it before 1979, when it appeared in print in an article by Ron Watmough, in the Small Business section of the Canadian newspaper The Lethbridge Herald, May 1979.

QUOTE BOX

Your work is going to fill a large part of your life, and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work. And the only way to do great work is to love what you do. —Steve Jobs
